

TINGIRA AHOY!

Week October 09 -16 2017

The Traditional Calvert Dinner this Saturday Night

This year's Calvert Memorial Sailing Event has been run and won and now it's time for one of Tingira's big nights - The Calvert Memorial Dinner which will take place this Saturday 14 October.

The evening will feature the traditional (and delicious) Calvert Event three course dinner prepared by Carol and John Lynch.

Dinner Menu

Fish Mornay

Roast Beef and Yorkshire Puddings

Homemade Apple Pie or Lemon Meringue Pie

The daughter of Brian and Margaret Calvert, Bronwyn Scarce, along with other family members will be travelling to Macleay Island to attend the dinner.

The Calvert Memorial Trophy and other prizes will be awarded to the place getters of the sailing event.

There will be live music and dancing. Music will be provided by duo Vicki and Frankie.

The bar will be open from 6:00pm. The coffee & tea bar will be set up and operating.

Tickets are $25.00 pp and are on sale now.

To make a booking or purchase tickets please contact Vice-Commodore Ron Boulton by mobile 0413 581 086 or email ron@boulton.id.au

Light Conditions Prevail for the Calvert Event

The morning event for off-the-beach sailors was sailed in a very light breeze. All six of the club vagabonds took to the water for the event. They were joined by Ralph Munro sailing his catamaran "Yanicat".

Vagabond 1	Ian Waller-Wilkinson and Gabby
Vagabond 2	Peter Fox and Trevor Armitage
Vagabond 3	Moss Lane and Moya Fox
Vagabond 4	Bob Sampson and Joseph Spicer
Vagabond 5	Peter Lawson and Justine
Vagabond 6	Lachlan & Joshua McLean and Tom
Yarnicat	Ralph Munro

The race started in a light breeze with the boats just making headway against the incoming tide. Peter and Trevor had a good tussle with Moss and Moya as they led up to the first mark. There was plenty of good banter. Lachlan, Joshua and Tom were also full of good cheer and banter which seemed to help their boat along. Unfortunately the breeze died before any of the boats could make the first mark. The tide won. Boats were drifting backwards. With time running out, the race was abandoned and many of the boats required paddles to get home. Unfortunately this meant there were nil results. A big thankyou to Bob Stampton, Ron Boulton and Petrae McLean for starting the race and watching over the fleet in the safety boat.

The Main Event

The main event for the 'big boats' was sailed in light airs as well.

The starting and finishing line was positioned just west of the Dalpura anchorage.

John and Kay Bowden generously provided their beautiful double ended trawler "Curlew" for the official committee boat. The start & finishing crew, led by Ivan Scott, did an efficient job of starting the event on time at 11:30am (approx). Barry Rawlinson in "Rainman" stayed close into Macleay Is and made a proper job of tacking up wind to the first mark (red beacon just NW of Pott's Point). The skippers of all the participating yachts had to show a great deal of patience sailing in a such a light breeze that showed little sign of strengthening. With the light breeze persisting and no sign of wind in the paddock, the race committee quite rightly decided to shorten the course. Boats rounded the Banana Bank / Peel Is Cardinal Marker and sailed back to the finishing line. Mike Stephens ('Sirius') and Ken Dempsey ('Celeste') had a close jostle with their spinnakers up on the run home. Bruce Legg ('Lady in Red') with red spinnaker filling nicely made up some good ground. 'Sirius' was home across the line first, then 'Celeste', followed by 'Lady in Red' and then not too far behind 'Rainman'.

Unfortunately 'The Nola H' and 'Truancy' did not finish. The Calvert Memorial Trophy is decided on handicap and so this was won by Barry in 'Rainman'. After the race a good number of thirsty sailors returned to the club for some refreshments and a debrief. They were very grateful for the kitchen crew who stayed back late to provide food for the hungry sailors and race committee volunteers. The race committee gives a big thankyou to those who assisted with this year's Calvert Memorial Sailing Event:

John and Kay Bowden (Curlew) and crew	Committee boat for start and finish
Max and Cathy Keily (Impetuous) and crew	Course observation and safety vessel
Ivan Scott	Handicapping, starter, timekeeper & record sheets
Mick Campaign	Tingira land base VHF radio operator
Ron Boulton	Course observation & safety boat
Neville Prosser	Photography
Margaret Jones, Cheryl McAteer and crew	Club catering crew
Rob Thompson	BBQ
Bar Crew	Robyn Goffe

So who is this sailing into Retirement?

It's Max Keily of course!

Happy Retirement Max - We wish you fair winds and many happy days messing about in boats.

("from all the Tingira crew)

Max sailing his newly renovated Bolger designed 15ft Gypsy sailboat with crew member Bruce Morris.

This 15 footer is excellent for our bay waters and can be rowed or sailed.

Tingira Kitchen Ketchup

Last Friday night was a splendid night indeed! Our fish n chip night saw a return to solid numbers (87 fine feasts were served up) and all members enjoyed the new reduced price for their meal.

Afterwards came the first night of the Coffee/Tea and Sweets Bar. This was well patronised and the sweet treats on offer were very tempting. A big thank you to Suzanne for a stella effort and looking forward to next month's first Friday to see what yummy surprises will be on offer.

The more you know, the more you can create. There's no end to imagination in the kitchen

Sunday on the Deck

There will be Sunday On the Deck this Sunday 15 October with delicious light lunches available. The bar will be open from 12 noon.

The rostered crew for Sunday:

Galley Crew: Margaret Jones & Helen Ehrlich

Bar Crew: Robyn Goffe; Barbeque: Trevor Ehrlich

No Vagabond Sailing and Kayaking This Sunday

Unfortunately the tides will be unsuitable for sailing and kayaking from the Club's beach.
