Robert Smith shows Ivan and Joanne how to belay the jib halyard while rigging the Vagabonds on Sunday

Four new club members were introduced to sailing last Sunday.

Darren Goddard, Deirdre Sanmugam, Ivan Milovanov and Joanne Racine joined the Vagabond sailing group. They were assisted by our instructors Robert Smith, Peter Fox and Moss Lane who were pleased to show them the ropes.

One of our junior sailors, Jack Marcon also enjoyed a sail in a Vagabond and a ride in the new safety RIB.

Meanwhile Ian Waller-Wilkinson and crew Isaac Matsui sailed together and tried to find a little more of the allusive breeze that was not quite living up to its promise.

A big thank you to Peter Lawson who assisted by skippering the Safety Rib.

Our Website: www.tingiraboatclub.com (Give this link a try)

Our Commodore, Neville Prosser, has been very busy over the past few days (if not weeks) developing our Club's website. It is now open for business.

As well as having a home page which has general information regarding:

Friday Night Dinners; Sunday on the Deck; Boating; Dragon Boats and The Macleay Island Classic

There are also links to:

- Coming Events
- Calvert Event Results and Photos
- Documents (Friday Cooking Roster, Bar Roster, Bus Roster, Set-Up and Clean-Up Rosters, Sunday on the Deck Roster)
- The Annual Report
- Current and past Tingira Ahoy! Newsletters

The website is now easy to navigate and is mobile, tablet and desktop friendly.

So no matter what device you are using you should have no trouble visiting our web page and finding the information you need.

Best of all however is that it the information is current and up-to-date.

So give it a try and have a Bo-Peep for yourself.

Use the link www.tingiraboatclub.com or cut and paste it (or type it) into your device's URL bar.

Tingira Kitchen Katchup

Enjoying our Friday night meals?

Our team of cooks and cook's helpers prepare fantastic meals each week and love being part of something special. It is very rewarding working away with friends in our well appointed kitchen and seeing happy, smiling people enjoying the meal that has been served.

As the end of the year approaches, members who are not already on the cooking roster may wish to think about joining the cooking team in the new year. It is lots of fun and we have many competent cooks who are willing to help the 'new kids in the kitchen'.

Our providore, Kay Allars, would love to hear from you if you would like to be included in next year's rosters. and have not already indicated your willingness to help.

How does a train eat? (answer: Chew, chew!)

Melbourne Cup Lunch - Do You Have Your Tickets Yet!

*On a Tuesday in November,
The first one to be sure,
As the winner flashes past the post,

Dragon Boaters Prepare for the Macleay Island Christmas Parade

Lynne Turner is commencing to organise this year's dragon boat float which will take part in the Macleay Island Christmas parade to be held on Saturday 02 December. Lynne and the dragon crew are planning to construct a big dragon's head from paper mache similiar in design to the one Lynne is holding - but much bigger.

Lynne is asking club members to help out by bringing in their old newspapers for the paper mache. They are asked to bring any old newspapers to the Club where they will be stored until required.

The Tingira Christmas Play

Rehearsals have commenced for the traditional Tingira Christmas Play

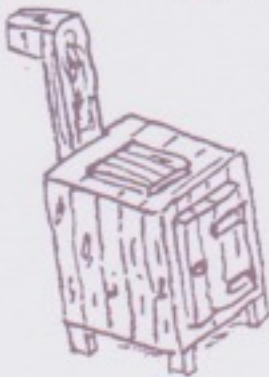

This year the play has been written by John Milne who will also take charge of its casting, production and direction. The plot of course is wrapped in absolute secrecy so as not to spoil the fun. But there is one thing to be sure - it will be a laugh minute and be full of fun. The play will be staged on Friday 24 November. There will be no charge for members and their guests. There will not be a members dinner that night but those attending the play are encouraged to bring a plate of nibbles to share.

The bar will be open from 6:00pm and dress will be casual.

More details about the play will be given as it draws closer.
