The Tingira Christmas Pantomime Friday 24 November

Rehearsals are well underway for this year's Christmas Pantomime titled "The Lonely Woodsman". The plot remains a carefully guarded secret however reliable sources say it does contain the usual high degree of hilarity that we have come to expect from our Tingirian Christmas pantomimes.

Further, I have learnt that the plot involves an agent of evil, a villainous character who is devoted to wickedness and mischief. The audience will need to be in good voice so as to direct a considerable amount of booing and hissing towards this antagonist.

There will be no entry charge, however members are asked to bring a plate (not empty) for supper to share after the performance.

Program:

| | |
|--------------|------------------------------------------|
| 6:00 -6:30pm | Bar open for pre-pantomime drinks |
| 6:30pm | Pantomime commences (bar will be closed) |
| 7:30pm | Bar re-opens, Supper and Drinks |

Dress: Christmassy casual.

Lynne no longer requires newspapers for paper mache but is asking Club members to please donate a packet of wrapped sweets.

Lynne intends giving out the sweets to the children during the parade. If you can help out please bring them along to the club on Friday nights or Sundays so that they can be passed on to Lynne and the other dragon boaters.
