

TINGIRA AHOY!

April 15 – April 21 2019

Next Friday is Good Friday – Club will be closed

There will be no members' dinner next Friday.

However, the Club will be open on Sunday 21 for Sunday on the Deck – a great way to spend a leisurely Easter Sunday after eating all those chocolates in the morning.

Pop on down for a fabulous burger and a drink – bar will be open from 12pm.

Kitchen News

Our lovely cleaner Chanaya Warbrick had her last shift with us last Friday night. Chanaya is leaving us after receiving word that she has gained a full time position in a cafe that is attached to The Henderson Gallery in the city. This is a wonderful opportunity for Chanaya and we wish her every success!

11th Macleay Island Classic

Last Friday night was the winding up of the 11th Macleay Island Classic 2019 and it gave me great pleasure to announce that we made a profit of $7,000. This makes it the greatest profit-making project for our club - well worth the effort put in by so many people.

Thanks were given to our sponsors. First of all, the Redland Bay City Council who gave us a Sponsorship Grant of $6,000. The Council has been a long-term sponsor of our event and has given us awards to encourage the event to grow.

Although we lost several of our long-term sponsors, we appreciate those that continue to support us.

Silver Sponsors: Bay Island Early Learning and Care and Boutique Meats.

Bronze Sponsors: Macleay Island Gifts and Stationery, The Haven Gallery, Bayair Transfers, Aussie Whip Maker, Island Plumbing and Sales, SMBI Little Bus, Gwen Lane and The Mad Hueys.

Minor Sponsors: Auto Marine, Macleay Island Hardware, Willow and Oak, All Things Hair and Beauty and Pub Paradise.

Each of our sponsors will receive a Certificate of Appreciation from the Commodore along with Denis Grant from Queensland Ambulance, Redland Bay Coast Guard and Coochiemudlo SLSA who will also receive a cheque $200 for their support.

To hold an event like the Macleay Island Classic, where you are attracting competitors from as far south as Coffs Harbour in NSW and as far north as Yeppoon, you need many people to look after their needs. Safety boats on the water, registration, timing, computer operation, catering, transportation, relay monitoring to mention a few. On Friday night, I presented Certificates of Appreciation to all those volunteers that assisted over the weekend – a total of over 70. Unfortunately, not all were present so I will track down the remainder to ensure they are rewarded in this small way.

I have enjoyed working with you all on, yet another Macleay Island Classic and hope to see you again next year at the 12th Macleay Island Classic.

Don't we have a great club.

Neville Prosser
Commodore
And Event Director
