News from the Quarterly General Meeting: June 1, 2019.

Leave of Absence

It was announced that our Secretary Peter Fox and Providore Moya Fox had applied for Leave of Absence from the Management Committee while travelling overseas.

The Management Committee has granted them Leave of Absence and as from June 14, 2019 appointed Margaret Britz to act as Secretary and Kay Chapman will act as Providore.

We wish Peter and Moya all the best on their travels.

Life Membership

It was with great pleasure that I was able to propose our Secretary Peter Fox to be awarded Life Membership of the Tingira Boat Club.

Life Membership in our Club is for outstanding service.

And Peter has definitely done just that.

Peter first joined the Club in January 2010 and was quickly co-opted onto the Management Committee.

In the year 2010 -2011 he was Treasurer.

2011-2014 he was Secretary

2014-2015 he was Sailing Master

2016-17 Vice Commodore

2017 to 2019 Secretary

TINGIRA AHOY!

My association with Peter goes back to the early days of the Canoe Race. As Treasurer, I invited him to join the Canoe Race sub-committee to look after the books, which he did quite well as we made a profit.

The next year he was no longer Treasurer, so I did not invite him. At the first meeting Peter turned up and made the Comment "Did you forget to invite me". So, he stayed and has been on that sub-committee ever since. To which I have been extremely grateful.

Six years ago, I joined the Management Committee as Vice Commodore and quickly got myself into trouble. Luckily Peter was able to sort things out and somehow, I became Commodore.

While I have been Commodore, Peter has only missed one year - which from memory was when Moya retired.

He has been Secretary, Sailing Master and Vice Commodore and has been someone I have been able to rely on at all times.

He has been my mentor.

Someone to talk over the problems of the club.

My adviser.

And most of all a good Friend.

My proposal was accepted by the General Meeting and I presented Peter a Certificate of Appreciation.
