Sailing News

There will be presentations made to winning sailors this Sunday for the Off the Beach and Calvert Sailing Series. These are for sailors that were not available on presentation night and also the crew of winning OTB boats whose names were mentioned in last week's newsletter.

The conditions weren't good for Off the Beach sailing last Sunday and with so many sailors on hand, the call went up for a spring clean-up. Boats were moved around in preparation for the Car & Boat Show and some maintenance was done.

This a good time to be doing this sort of improvement and is sorely needed, so don't leave it to the dedicated and let's look after these boats. There will be sailing as part and parcel of this work in preparation for our next OTB sailing series.
