Padding News

Hi all,

Well what a great weekend of paddling and socialising was had by some of our members and guests from Talobilla Outriggers.

Miraculously, the rain stopped for both our Saturday and Sunday paddles and we had 2 days of perfect, still, bay conditions to enjoy.

After a lovely morning tea Saturday, we paddled around Macleay Island via a swim at Karragarra and Pats Park. Isaac somehow left a piece of clothing behind at each location and with not much left to lose, it was decided by all, no more stops till back at the club.

A brilliant lunch of fish, chips, salads and dessert was served along with a few cold ales and wines.

Many stories and laughs were shared by all.

A couple of hours of relaxation was then followed by dinner at Club Macleay and an early night for all, except 2 nameless men. We shall just call them Chris Metcalfe and Brad Williams for the story.

An early start Sunday and once again Huey smiled upon us. A perfect, rain-free paddle and a stop at Coochie and a technique class by the paddling guru Whetu.

The Talobilla crew and others then had a crack at one of our time trial courses and unfortunately smashed our record.

Back at the Boat Club for a great breakfast, cleanup and a farewell to our guests, just before it started to bucket down again.

Thanks to all the committee and members who helped make the weekend a great success. Our guests were very impressed with our Club setup and hospitality and look forward to their next visit.

Thanks also to Karen and Kerry for doing all they did without being asked to do it.

And our breakfast chefs, Chris and Rob.

Cheers,
Peter Hayward

“Hi everyone at Tingira Boat Club and Talobilla Club. What a wonderful weekend to spend time paddling with you all, learning and sharing our skills and friendship on the water and land. Much appreciation for everyone involved to make sure we were fed, picked up and dropped off, always checking if we needed anything else. Love to you all and hope to see you again soon x

Sailing News

Hi and Ahoy,

Whether you like the rainy weather or not, Sunday at the Club was great and the beach was abuzz with happy sailors and paddlers who were glad they got the best of the weather for their outings. Some Jubilee boat sailors also had prepared to sail, but their boat preparations were ultimately thwarted by the rain. A big thank you from all to the club support volunteers for putting in with their time and energy on such a day. Moss, Neville, Peter, Ray, Bruce and Dudley were brilliant.

Next week there won't be any sailing but Peter Fox will hold a sailing information tutorial in the club on Sunday 16 at 9.30am.
