Sailing News

Ahoy!

As sailing and paddling have been given guidelines to go ahead under the Aquatic Sports Sector Covid Safe Industry Plan, I think we have the right measures to be safely sailing and paddling with other club members. So if the weather is suitable let's observe social distancing and go boating this Sunday at 9:00am.

The Tingira Boat Club committee have been working hard - well, fairly hard to assure the safety of members in another way.

New life jackets for sailors and paddlers.

A grant has been won and now an order has been placed. Some of the new jackets suit paddlers and the others are better suited for sailing.

Also if you would like more details and to place a personal order for life jackets please ring myself or Moss so we can attach it to the club's order.

Paddling News

Hi all,

No paddling on Sunday. A touch chilly and late arvo high tide. Hopefully back into it next week.

We will have to work around winter tides and weather for another couple of months. Hopefully Sunday on the Deck will be back on in the not too distant future also.

Included are Sunday Casual paddling times up until our Island Race on the weekend of 31st October.

These are YOU MUST BE AT THE CLUB times. High tides are about 45-60 minutes later.

Please be punctual so we can make the most of it.

Times will also be advertised on Tingira Dragons and Outriggers Facebook page.

Or contact Karen 0411463685 for more info.

Please check in on the Saturday as weather or numbers may change things and we also have limited seats and steerers.

If we don't know you're coming, you may miss out.

Also in a month or so, we will start checking numbers and availability for our Island Race teams.

If interested let us know as limited spots available.

Cheers,
Peter
