INDEMNITY

All persons taking part in this event do so at their own risk and at their own responsibility. Tingira Boat Club Inc is not responsible for the seaworthiness of a yacht whose entry is accepted or the sufficiency of its equipment. It shall be the sole responsibility of each skipper to decide whether or not to start or to continue in the event. The International Rules for the prevention of collision at sea must be observed, with particular regard to giving way to commercial vessels in restricted waters. Safety equipment to Queensland Department of Transport requirements must be carried. Please note that some of the participating vessels may not be carrying insurance.

I agree to these conditions and will sail in fair competition under the rules of the event.
