Paddling Report - Peter Hayward

Hi all,

A good turnout of paddlers Sunday.

But after much deliberation and not much enthusiasm for a short paddle before the wind really set in, we decided a swim at Oomool was a far better option.

And it was.

Next week's an early one for Advanced and the following week weather permitting we will be doing our yearly flip (huli) training.

More details next week.

Cheers

Peter H

Sailing Report - Sunday 07 November

Three Vagabonds took to the water on Sunday and enjoyed a comfortable northerly breeze of 10 - 12 knots. There should have been more boats out - as we had plenty of willing crews - but we were sadly missing some of our experienced skippers.

John Hardy had his first sail in one of our Club Vagabonds.

He is an experienced boatie/sailor but hadn't been out in a sailing dinghy for some time. You would not have known that! - John was away right from the start showing just how it's done.

Crewing for John was Michael Larsen adding to his sailing experience and knowledge. Together they did a 'proper job' (as they say in Cornwall).

Peter Fox was thrilled to take out a longtime friend Greg Nelson. Peter grew up with Greg in Townsville and were in Cubs, Scouts, Secondary School, Teachers College together and eventually taught for a while in the same town (even teaching in the same classroom but not at the same time). Greg took the tiller early in the piece and did a 'proper job' of it as well.

Jen Rush enjoyed a great sail with Ian Waller- Wilkinson and after crewing for a while took her turn on the tiller - and yes, she did a 'proper job' of it too. Jen had her phone camera out there and was able to take some snaps and video which you can checkout on the Tingira Boatclub And Outriggers Facebook Page.

After an enjoyable sail it was back to the Clubhouse for lunch - fish'n'chips on the deck - what could be better.

Sadly no sailing next Sunday due to the tide. The next scheduled sailing date is Sunday 21 November.

Sundowners and Tapas - Saturday 20 November

Tingira's Saturday Sundowners and Tapas have proven to be a huge success and have become quite popular.

The last event held in October attracted between 70 and 80 guests. Due to high demand that evening some of our guests missed out on getting their supply of yummy Tapas.

Following a review, the committee decided to make this event strictly for members and their invited guests and that a booking system be adopted. Bookings will include a pre-order of the tapas required and quantities. This will ensure the number of attendees are kept to a manageable number and that there will be plenty of tapas for all that attend.

Our next Sundowners and Tapas is scheduled for Saturday 20 November.

The Tapas menu for the evening will be:

- Olives with saffron and cheese $3
- Ricotta-stuffed prosciutto and melon $5
- Roasted red capsicum and olive tostada $5
- 3 mushroom pate $5
- Garlic chicken pieces $5
- Cheese pastries $5

To avoid disappointment bookings are essential

Members are requested to make a booking via email or text and provide the following information:

- Name of member(s)
- Name(s) of their invited guest(s)
- A pre-order of their choice and quantity of tapas for each person attending. (See the Tapas Menu above)

Bookings can be made via email admin@tingiraboatclub.com or text 0417 841 009
