Celebration of Life - Val Notley

Currently the Tingira Committee is organising a celebration of Val Notley's life. Val was a long term member of the Tingira Boat Club (approx 18 years) but sadly passed away on Monday 07 February.

A celebration of her life is being planned for Saturday 02 April to take place at the Tingira Boat Club.

The planned arrangements include a gathering at the Tingira beachside to reflect on Val's life, particularly of her (and husband Ron's) time with the Tingira community.

This will be led by Immediate Past Commodore Neville Prosser who will speak on behalf of our Club. Other Club members and close friends are invited to share their special memories of Val at this time also.

This will be followed with the laying of flowers on the outgoing tide from the Club pontoon which will be brought closer inshore. It is hoped that our OC6s and other private boats will also assist with the laying of flowers. Afterwards the club will provide a light lunch. Refreshments will be available from the bar. During lunch, a presentation of photos and videos featuring Val will be shown.

10:30am Gather at the Club's beachside (if the weather is fine) or on the clubhouse deck (if the weather is wet).

11:00am A welcome and reflection on Val's life (particularly her time at the Tingira Boat Club) led by Immediate Past Commodore Neville Prosser.

11:30am Laying of flowers on the outgoing tide from the Club pontoon, OC6s and other participating private boats.

12:00pm Light refreshments and audio visual presentation of photos and videos of Val and Ron Notley.

Members wishing to attend the Celebration of Val Notley's Life should RSVP by Thursday 24th March.

Please send your RSVP to Secretary Peter Fox by telephone / text 0417 841 009 or email admin@tingiraboatclub.com
