Sailing News from Ian

There is some beautiful weather at the moment and the paddlers are having the best of it.

Lower high tides are usual for this time of year so the safety boat may not be launched at Sandpiper beach until August.

Of course, if a bunch of people are keen to sail vagabonds the safety boat could be launched at Dalpura.

Thank you to Moss, Peter S., Digby and Max for working on the pontoon and giving it a bit of a facelift and hopefully it will be in great shape for the up-and-coming Sailing dates.

Tuesday maintenance is still focused on getting the pontoon finished and volunteers would be most welcome. 9am start.
