Tingira Off-the-Beach Sailing – Sunday 14 August

Gone was the rain and dull cloudy skies of the previous days. Bright sunshine and a light westerly breeze made for very pleasant sailing on a winter's day.

Before getting out on the water a group of our safety boat crews and sailors watched a video on how safety boat crews can assist in the recovery of capsized sailing dinghies.

Jen Rush, Warren Goulding, John Dennys, Bruce Legg, Michael Larsen, Moss Lane, Peter Fox and Ian Waller-Wilkinson watched and discussed the training video produced by Royal Yachting Association (UK).

Then it was time to rig and launch the boats. Warren Goulding and John Dennys crewed the safety RIB Sandpiper to keep an eye on the safety of our sailors and transport the race officials out to the pontoon. Marion Mori, Don Noble and Jen Rush did an awesome job of starting and finishing the races with perfect timing.

Peter Fox sailed with Moss Lane aboard Vagabond 1 and Ian Waller-Wilkinson and Michael Larsen sailed together aboard Vagabond 2. We managed two short races with the following results:

Boat Skipper / Crew	Race 1	Race 2	Points	Previous Agg Points	Year Agg Points
Vagabond P. Fox / M. Lane	1	1	2	20	22
Vagabond Ian W- W / M. Larsen	2	2	4	19	23

Sailing News from Ian

Thanks to the weather being great, there were some vagabond races and a special thanks to the pontoon crew and the safety boat crew. They all had a great time managing the races.

Next get together for Off the Beach sailing is 8am on 28th of August. Please check the roster to see if you are on the support vessels.
