What a Great Night!!! – The Commodore's Ball

Feedback from guests including some of our longer-term Club members have commented that this year's Commodore's Ball was a most memorable one. Perhaps it was due to the following recipe.

Recipe for a Great Night Out at the Tingira Boat Club

Ingredients:

Tasty Food + Great Music + Awesome Atmosphere + An Enthusiastic and Fun-Loving Crowd = A Great Night Out at the Tingira Boat Club.

Method:

Chef Andy and Providore Maree devised a great menu, and with help from Kerry Otter, Bronwyn Simcox and Deb Hollingsworth, prepared a very tasty and enjoyable four course dinner.

On entry, our Master of Ceremonies, Joanna Moss, introduced our famous Hollywood Celebrity guests and made them most welcome. But where had our humble Clubhouse gone?? It had been transformed into a glitzy Hollywood Ballroom with dining tables decked with candelabras.

Guests were soon equipped with a beverage of their choice from our bar volunteers Gavin Knott, John Hynes, Moya and Peter Fox. Meanwhile as with most Hollywood glamour events, our photographer Helmut Perowitz spent a busy evening taking happy snaps of our glamorous guests and the fun they were having.

Our entertainers Chrissy Carrick and Lisa Fearnley had the dance floor filled throughout the evening – and with guests demanding an encore performance.

What a difficult and unenviable task Margaret Britz had in judging which of our many, many glamorous guests would receive an award.

Margaret (disguised as Rebel Wilson - before she lost weight) (Note: I do have consent from Margaret for this statement), applied her forensic skills to scrupulously inspect the glamorous crowd (and ignoring all offers of a bribe) awarded the following:

TINGIRA AHOY!

Most Creative – Max Keily as Mad Max

Best Couple – Philipa and Christopher Gilbert as Pride and Prejudice characters, Mr and Mrs Darcy.

TINGIRA AHOY!

Most Glamorous –
Rosamund Foster as Liz
Taylor

Most Authentic – Catherine Marsh
as Cruella De Vil (The 101 Dalmatians Film)

TINGIRA AHOY!

An event such as this takes careful planning and many volunteers. Pleasing to say, we had great Tingira teamwork and spirit to bring everything together with an amazing result.

Commodore Moss Lane and the Tingira Management Committee sincerely thank all those who assisted with the planning and conduct of this year's Commodore's Ball.
