"Flinders Day" on Coochiemudlo Island Roundup

What a spectacular winter morning to be out on the water. The new floating pontoons on the main boat ramp at Macleay made a wonderful launch pad for our Club's flotilla of power boats. All passengers enjoyed being able to simply step- aboard and cast off.

This left the ramp at Dalpura free for our large sailing group to launch without too much congestion holding things up. The breeze was a little light for our sailors which made the trip across a bit slower than usual with some crew reverting to the oars for a little manual assistance.

Everyone enjoyed a leisurely wander around the Coochie markets at Main Beach, with coffee and breakfast proving to be the most popular purchases.

At about 11:30am we all boarded our craft and headed around to Norfolk Beach to watch the historical re-enactment of Matthew Flinders beach landing.
