Point Talburpin Sailors Get Together

Wow, what a fabulous day!

A good number of Tingira Club sailors attended the Point Talburpin Sailors Get Together held on Saturday 5th of August.

The event, held several times a year, is organised by Tingira members Tony and Lyn Harland who live on the Esplanade at Pt Talburpin, Redland Bay. A big thank you must go to Tony and Lyn (and their team of awesome helpers) for organising this event.

John Hardy's Obsession

There was quite a colourful array of 28 sailboats of different design and size, ranging from small off-the-beach sailing dinghies to larger trailer sailers.

As well as a number of members from the Wooden Boat Association of Queensland, there was a good contingent from the Tingira Boat Club.

Tingirians Trevor and Jenny Rogers took line honours (by a long way) in their beautiful Flying Dutchman design "Katie Louise".

Other Tingirians included Ian Waller-Wilkinson and Priscilla in their 16ft fibreglass O'Day sailboat named "Scarlett"; John Hardy in his newly restored wooden Coresound 17 named "Obsession"; PJ Smith in his newly refurbished 16ft Hartley Trailer Sailer "Amy-B" with crew member Don Newman and Peter and Moya Fox in their Welsford designed wooden boat "Not Duffers".

TINGIRA AHOY!

7 Jubilee one design yachts also took part and many of these had Tingira sailors aboard as well, including Mike King and Chrissy Carrick aboard "Nereid"; John King and Sonja sailing "Lyla"; Lyn Harland in "Jason" and Alison Early sailing in "Isabel".

Tony Harland's wooden clinker launch on starter's duty

A big thankyou to our Commodore Moss Lane and Michael Larsen who crewed our safety RIB "Sandpiper" and kept a watchful eye on things and ready to assist if required.

The fleet awaits the tide at Pt Talburpin

After an hour or two on the water, the returning hungry and thirsty sailors were greeted by the delicious smell of sausages on the bbq and refreshments from a cold esky. All in all a most wonderful day sailing on the water and socialising onshore for our local sailors - and an event not to miss.
