Tingira Boat Club "Members 40th Birthday Party"

Our Club's "40th Anniversary Luncheon" was enjoyed by all those attending last Saturday afternoon.

Delicious food, wonderful entertainment from the "Choral Chorale" and a wander down memory lane as you walked through the Club's historical display. Past Commodore's Robert Smith, Neville Prosser, Lindsay Hackett and Barry Jamieson were all there to assist our current Commodore Moss Lane in cutting the Birthday Cake.

Speeches from both Robert Smith and Nev Prosser gave an invaluable insight into the early days of Club life, and how, through the hard work and dedication of our incredible volunteer members, the Club has progressed to what we all enjoy today.

A big thank you to our hard-working Club Committee who organised, prepared and cooked for the event, and to all the volunteers who assisted on the day- well done everyone!
One Last time

Vale: Ron Notley

We were sad to hear that Ron Notley passed away peacefully at Mater Private Hospital around 3 pm on Saturday August 19, 2023, after a fall at his residence at Silvan Woods Nursing Home in Birkdale earlier in the week.

Coincidentally, we were celebrating the Club's 40th birthday at the time.

Ron and Val were long-standing members of the Tingira Boat Club, contributing to the Club's operations as volunteers and in water activities.

Ron will be remembered particularly for decorating the premises for various functions over their more-than-20-year membership – calling on Ron's skill as a former window dresser in Sydney – and tripping the light fantastic in annual Christmas plays.

We all became nervous as he climbed ladders to place babbles on the ceiling, but he always managed to finish unscathed. Many of us will recall his stories about his contribution as a senior leader in the Australian Air League and his many adventures with that organisation, wearing his white uniform to many Commodore's Balls. Ron and Val were always immaculately dressed for such occasions. Val passed away in February last year and Ron spent the last part of his life in Silvan Woods. She was the love of his life, although Val could be heard saying 'Oh Ron' on the odd occasion. They are both sadly missed by their numerous friends in the Club and more broadly.

Information regarding funeral and memorial arrangements will be circulated as these are confirmed.
