Vagabond Race Results - Sunday 11 February

Our sailing year got off to a great start last Sunday with a fleet of 8 Vagabonds on the water for our first race day for 2024.

We were pleased to welcome Rick Smith, John Connell and David Piang-Nee who joined with our regulars for a series of 3 short races. Also great to see Jenny 'Slow' Rush sailing with Rob Verruso having their first race together in the Vagabonds.

Thankfully the rain stayed away but the SE breeze was quite fresh and gusty giving cause for a capsize or two.

A big thankyou to Commodore Moss and P.J. Smith who crewed our safety RIB "Sandpiper" and ferried our race officials Chrissy Carrick and Wes Greaver out to the pontoon. Chrissy and Wes did a great job in starting and finishing the races and recording the results.

Start Sailing Program Commences for 2024

This year we have had an increased number of Club members expressing an interest in learning to sail and a good number of inquiries from Island based parents looking for sailing lessons for their teenage children. Over the years the Tingira Boat Club has conducted learn to sail lessons. More recently the Start Sailing Program was devised to introduce newbies (both young and old) to the basics of how to sail an off-the-beach sailboat.

The program utilises our Club's fleet of Vagabond sailing boats and the assistance of some of our more experienced dinghy sailors. Due to the high demand the first session of the program commenced last week on Saturday 10 February.

(Taku Reid, Isaac Monaghan, Levi Greaver and Ethan Fox practise helming and paddling their Vagabond sailboat)

The introductory session focused on the following discussion topics:

TINGIRA AHOY!

- What to check beforehand. (e.g. weather and tides)
- Personal protection from the sun, wind, water, heat and cold.
- Personal and group safety.
- What to take in the boat.

We then had a session on the water with participants sharing the tasks of helming the dinghy while under paddle power.

Despite grey skies the newbies showed a great deal of enthusiasm and interest. A big thankyou to the sizeable group of experienced sailors who came along to share their sailing skills. A big thankyou (and 3 million cheers) to Trevor Rogers, Ian Waller-Wilkinson, Bruce Legg and Don Newman.

A big thankyou to Commodore Moss Lane and Paul Hollingdale for their assistance in our Club Safety Rib Sandpiper and keeping a watchful eye on things.

(Jenelle Hollingdale and Anne Hynes with Ian Waller-Wilkinson practise helming and paddling their Vagabond.)

Start Sailing Program - Sunday 18 February 2024

There was a very pleasing attendance of beginner sailors at our Start Sailing session held this Sunday at the Tingira Boat Club.

Just as pleasing was the corresponding number of experienced sailors volunteering their time to share their knowledge with the beginners.

After a quick recap of the session conducted last week we got down to learning to tie those important knots used for rigging a sailboat.

Trevor Rogers introduced the 'stopper knot', the 'round turn & two half hitches' and the all important and very useful 'bowline' knot,

Our volunteer instructors then gave one-on-one assistance to help our newbies master the art of tying the knots.

Next the beginner sailors were shown how to rig the Vagabond sailboats ready for a sail.

Jibs and mainsails were hoisted by their halliards (not called ropes) and their sheets (not to the hull. There was lots of sailor's 'talk' and be called ropes either) and were connected to interesting boat names given for all the bits.

TINGIRA AHOY!

Again big thanks to our experienced Vagabond sailors for volunteering their time and sharing their knowledge and skills.

With thanks and 3 million cheers

Saturday Night Sundowners Dinner

Our first Saturday Night Dinner for the year kicked off in fine form last Saturday, starting at 5pm to take advantage of our beautiful island sunset.

After Friday's heavy rainy day, Mother Nature gave us a fabulous clear evening on Saturday to enjoy bevvies and dinner under the stars on the club's waterfront.

Saturday Sundowner Dinners is designed to give club members who are unable to attend on our regular Friday nights the opportunity to enjoy our members dinners.

Jim, Peter and "master-carver" Ian, put the new spit to great use once again, firing it up around 2pm with succulent boned legs of lamb slow roasting over gidgee charcoal.

With Moya in the kitchen baking off the jacket potatoes and mixing up a bucket load of her wonderful creamy slaw, the evening was off to a flyer with the doors open and bar serving ice cold beverages from 5pm.

TINGIRA AHOY!

From the feedback on the night, it was a great concept and everyone agreed one that should be repeated. (Especially the Drumstick Dessert)

A very special mention and a big thank you to Nigel Sanderson and Kevin McMath who jumped in and did an excellent job cleaning up after dinner was complete.

Boat and Yard maintenance Tuesdays

"Hello Boy! What's that you've got there?"

Every Tuesday is maintenance day at the club, those members willing to volunteer their time are invited to join in the fun.

Our sailing and powerboat members volunteer their time to upkeep our Vagabond fleet, Safety Ribs and Club pontoon.

We also carry out any required maintenance and upkeep of the club grounds.

Morning tea and lively boating banter completes the morning tasks. It's a great way to meet fellow members while keeping our club in Tip-Top shape.

Every Tuesday from 9:00 am.
